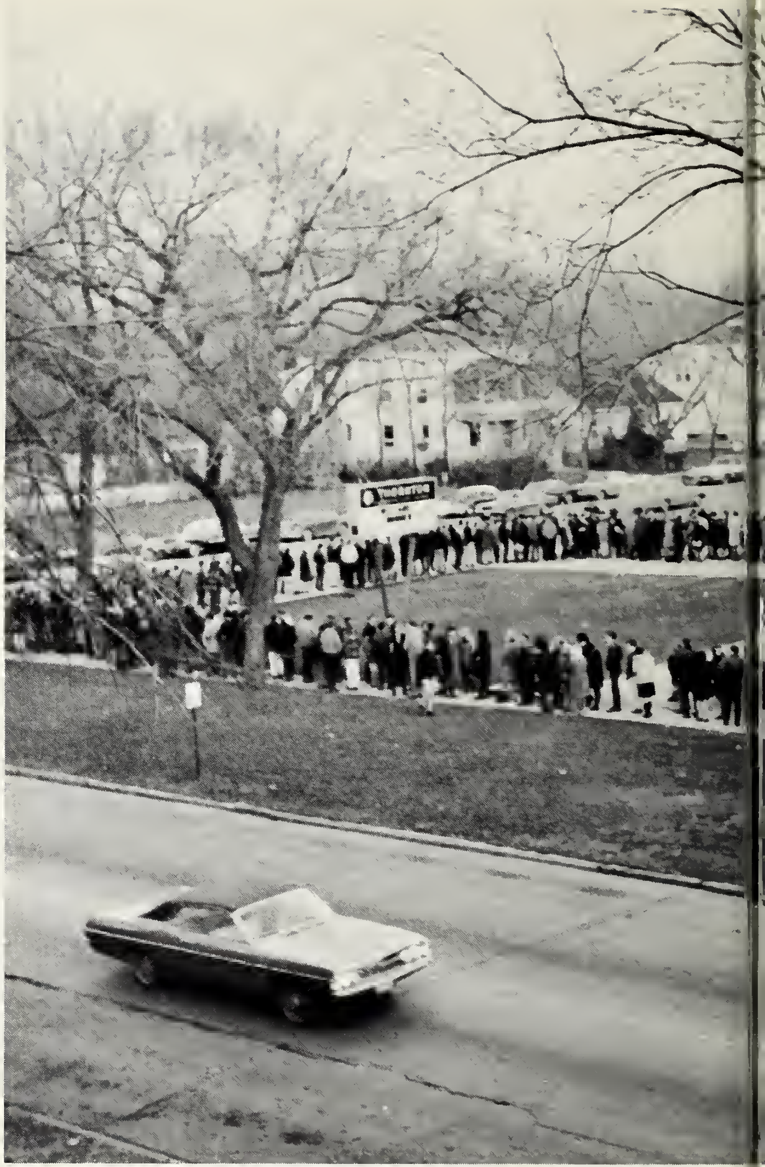
CALDRON 1969

THORNTON JUNIOR COLLEGE
HARVEY, ILLINOIS



Registration

Registration this year was eyed as a Herculean task by college students. It was again characterized by never-ending lines and seemingly endless hours of waiting.

Always true to their cause, however, the dedicated students overcame all odds and the second semester rolled on.

Homecoming '68

HOMECOMING '68

Homecoming this year found student participation and enthusiasm at an unparalled peak. Under the leadership of GAD, Homecoming '68 was the most successful event TJC has seen in many years.

The week-end started off with a car caravan culminating in a bonfire and pep assembly. Afterward, students danced to the sound of Vern Ryan, a former Thornton Junior College student, and his 10th dimension.

Saturday afternoon saw Thornton whallop Wright Junior College 13-6.

The Belmont Hotel was the sight of the main event of the week-end. Students danced to the Jim Bestman Orchestra at "Golden Rapture."

Donna Reed and Stu Vogel, two popular TJC'ers, reigned over the week-end. Included in their court were: Pat McNamara, Janet VanBaren, Mary Ellen Conway, Diane Kredens, Terri Donahue, John Noonan, Jack St. Aubin, Larry (Buzz) Gunty, Paul Ackerlund, and Mike Zsetenyi.

General chairman of the week-end was Pat Konrath. Serving as his committee chairmen were: Barb Cernick and Ruth Biesboer, publicity; Ginny Kane, invitations and flowers; Linda Ward, bids; Mari Ellen Quirk, tickets; and Elena Cardaras, coronation.

Dances

Thornton students were presented with a variety of outlets in which to display their dancing talents. Some were formal occasions such as the Men's Club–sponsored Sleighbell Ball, or informal dances such as the semester mixers and Circle K–sponsored Miss TJC contest.

Pancake Eating Contest

Two new dimensions were added to the extra curricular life at TJC this year. The first was a pancake eating contest which pitted TJC against Moraine Valley College. Unfortunately, TJC's team of Alice Barkley, Kathy Faber, Kathy Gucfa, Diane Kredens, Buzz Gunty, John Erickson, Stu Vogel, Dale Buckels, and Jim Skilbeck went down to defeat as Moraine Valley College out ate us by 98 pancakes.

The second activity was the week-end excursion to Indiana which was made by the committee studying and evaluating student activities at TJC.

Indiana Weekend

GENERAL STUDIES

The General Studies curriculum, a one semester course, is designed to generate and motivate skills for success in college. The enrollment this year totaled some 63 students and succeeded in improving the attitudes of the students for a more positive future in the college society.

AFRO- American History

A new history course was added to the curriculum this spring, Afro–American history. Through this course, it is hoped students will learn more about the history of the Negro people and his role in society. The course is taught jointly by Mr. John Palmer and Mr. Hezekiah Johnson.

Teacher Aide

One of the newer looks around Thornton Junior College this year has been the Teacher Aide program. The program is constructed to train people to effectively and usefully assist teachers. This competence is gained through study and practical experience. The Teacher Aide program presently enrolls 100. It is directed by Clifton Satterthwaite.

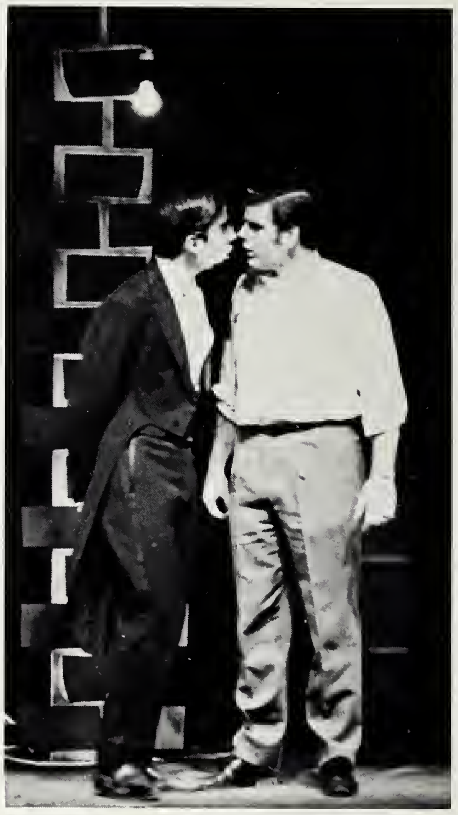
CLUBS

FIREBUGS

What do you do when the world is burning down around you and the people who set it on fire are staying in your home? Why you ignore them of course, and you ignore the fire and anything else in life that doesn't particularly agree with you.

That's just what the characters in The Firebugs did in the fall production of the drama society. Members of the cast included Robert Jackson as Biedermann, Maurine Gaynor as Anna, Bruce Quist as Sepp Schmitz, Mary Kay Koch as Babette, Roger Young as Willi Maria Eisenring, Dennis Webb as the policeman, Leah Ruisard as Mrs. Knechtling, Steve Noble as the professor, John Gibb as the leader of the chorus and chorus members Betty Barth, Julie Lamport, Maureen Riordan, Tim Kaczmarski, James Preut, and Ronald Kingery.



RAINMAKER

Every man must have a dream and Bill Starbuck was no exception. Bringing rain to the drought stricken west was his ambition and his romantic encounter with a lovely old maid brought rain and happiness to two empty lives.

Portraying their brief encounter and the resulting change in their lives were Robert Jackson as H. C. Curry, Bill Barth as Noah Curry, Ron Kingery as Jim Curry, Margaret Voris and Susan Weldon as Lizzie Curry, Ron DeYoung as File, Steve Noble as Sheriff Thomas, and Bruce Quist as Bill Starbuck.

Mike Bambrick, photographer, is on the receiving end this time.

Friendly Tom DiFilippo consoles Carolyn Aducci, editor, after an editorial meeting.

CALDRON

Jack St. Aubin, Tom DiFilippo and Carl Bethmann, sports editor, reflect on their work on the sports section.

While turning through these pages, the scenes of athletics, students enjoying themselves, and people working together are the creation of The Caldron, a dedicated group of individuals who have recreated your school year in pictures.

Dale Buckels, Gladys Guinn and Sharon Selby work on the activities and organizations section.

COURIER

Newswriting is an art as priceless as a VanGogh, a Michaelangelo, or a Rembrant. This year's staff of writers has not only created a newspaper that upholds "Our Ultimate Responsibility Is To The Truth," but have also made students aware of problems which effected them more than the students realized. The saying goes, "A newspaper is what you make it," and made one they have.

GAD
I GIVE A DAMN

Student spirit is difficult to imbue in students who lack it, but GAD, the Junior College's newly formed spirit club, has been able to spark that spirit to the extent of making students want to move. Ski trips, buses to away games, and a Homecoming Caravan have ignited a warm feeling in students and their school. Their motto is "In GAD We Trust" and through GAD we hope for a future as bright as our dreams may be. Yes, GAD, "we do give a darn!"

SYSTEMS AND PROGRAMMING ORGANIZATION

SYSTEMS AND PROGRAMMING ORGANIZATION

The purpose of this organization is to promote leadership in the field of data processing and to expand the students' knowledge of data processing through educational seminars. Mr. James Steimle is the sponsor.

SPLIT

"Split," the new fine arts magazine, provided a wide cross-section of student art work and writings. The publication sought to give recognition to outstanding work in each area of college study and to give the student body some idea of the versatility and ability of its members.

Editorial staff included, left to right: Victor Klancer, art editor; Mrs. Nadine Hill, literary advisor; Veronica Morris, editor-in-chief; Sue Verhoeven, literary editor. Mr. George Lowry, art advisor, is not pictured.

NURSING

Thornton Junior College offers a two year nursing program which is designed to prepare students to enter the nursing field. Studies coordinate general education and nursing courses, classroom teaching and practice which is gained through work in area hospitals. Hospitals included are Ingalls Memorial; Harvey, St. Francis, Blue Island; Tinley Park State Hospital.

Miss Carolyn Fraser has directed the popular and comprehensive program since its inception.

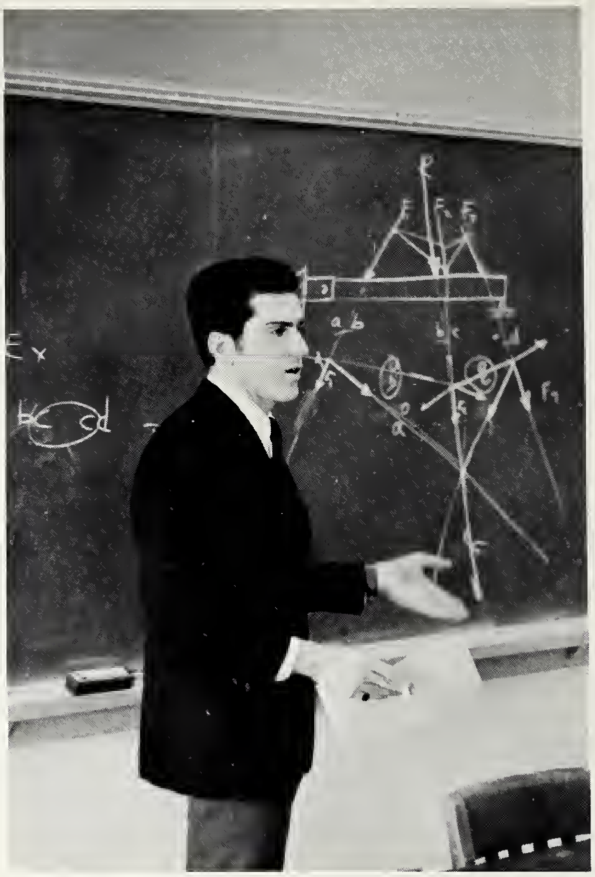
TECHNICAL

The Technical department of Thornton Junior College is designed to train young men for qualification as Mechanical or Electrical Technicians in today's modern industry.

The curriculum provided a wide variety of technical course work which is closely coordinated with area industrial firms. This couples theory with practical application. Mr. Harmon Roberts works with various advisory committees from industry to keep programs updated.



NIGHT SCHOOL

Returning to school after an absence of several years can be both a rewarding and a frustrating experience. This fact can be testified to by the 5,000 or more students who are currently enrolled in the night school classes at Thornton Junior College. Classes of an academic nature are offered for those who eventually want to obtain a degree and classes for self-improvement are offered for those who wish to broaden their scope of interests. The success of the night school program can be witnessed by the rapidly expanding enrollment and constant addition of new courses.

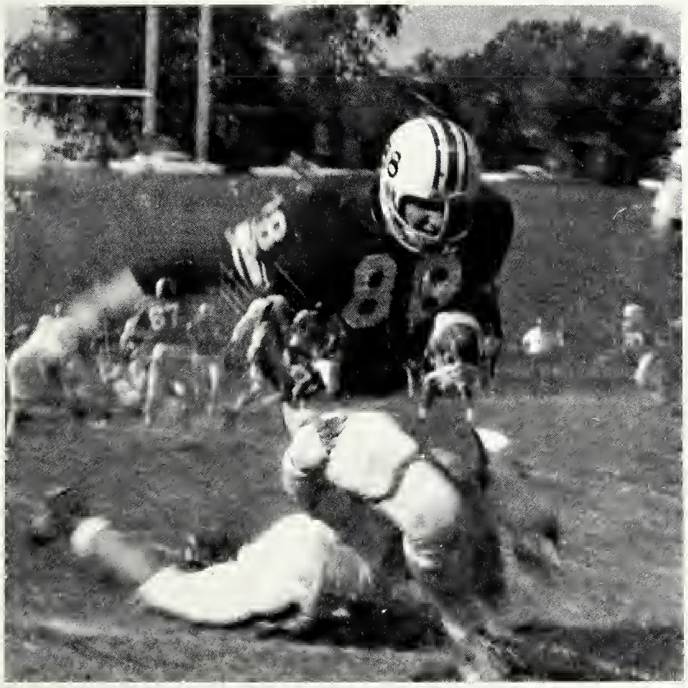
The Thornton Junior College Bulldogs came up with one of the most exciting season they have ever had. During the first four games the Bulldogs were "eating" everyone in sight. They had a ranking of 16th in the NIJCC National rankings. Then came the crutial fifth game. They played Illinois State in a non-conference game and it cost them the services of Erv Bratcher, outstanding end at both defense and offense. In the games following, other injuries were imposed upon key players of the Bulldogs and a revamping of the team had to be made. The adjustments were too much for the Bulldogs to handle but they gave it all they had. We can truly say Congratulations to them for a fine season.

A familiar sight for J. C. this year especially in the first four games was the referees arms in the upright position.



Thornton's defense was found everywhere the opponent looked with no way out.

Outstanding tight end John Noonan outruns his defenders for another fine reception.

Discussing game plans was a weekly ritual for Quarterback Greg Lee and Coach Ed Bonczyk.

Thornton's fine defense left opposition nearly scoreless throughout the first four games.

Night games were enjoyed by many. North Central was one of two night opponents for the Bulldogs this year.

Defensive Safety Don Peloquin was a tough little scrapper for the Bulldogs this season.

Good interior linemen are hard to find but this year Thornton found four that were hard to beat. L. to R.: Jack St. Aubin, Bill Swietzer, Rudy Fernandez and Lawrence Gunty.

Offensive end Jim Bonin was one of the top receivers for Thornton this year.

With the closing of the wrestling season at Thornton, the matmen can look back over a very successful season. The matmen finished with a record of nine wins, four losses and one tie. Considering that two of those losses were to two of the top junior college teams in the nation, our team has nothing to feel sorry for.

The bright spot on the squad seemed to be in the 145 lb. position. Walter Orr racked up an outstanding record of ten wins, two losses, and one tie. This does not mean, however, that the rest of the squad was not in there fighting. Dave Mazias racked up a record of 7-5. Jim Pranger ended up with a fine 5-2-1 record and Ed Berschinski put together a fine 8-4 record. Mike Duffy came up with a 7-3 record and Rudy Fernandez finished with an 8-5 record. Greg Freehauf ended the season with a 9-4 record and "big" Mike Lariccia racked up a very respectable 8-1-2.

Each member of the squad gave his all, win or lose, to the school and to the team. It was each man's determination that he was going to win that gave the squad the respectable standing that it has. Determination, pride and the belief that you are the best is what gives you a winning team. The wrestlers this year lacked nothing.

This season the Bulldogs under the coaching of Bill Fink had a disappointing season of 4 wins and 19 losses.

With the loss of their opening game as well as the second one the Black and Orange were destined to play well below the ability of their regular playing standards.

Although the Bulldogs of Thornton did not come up with a very successful season, the team played hard every minute of every game.
